METROPOLITAN DENVER DENTAL SOCIETY ORGANIZATIONAL INFORMATION

The Metropolitan Denver Dental Society (MDDS), a component of the American Dental Association (ADA), has been serving the profession of dentistry since 1897. Its 1,500+ members, representing more than 83% of all the licensed dentists in the Denver metropolitan area, collectively exemplify the MDDS mission of supporting the highest ethical practice of dentistry and enhancing the standard of care for all the publics served by the dental profession.

All MDDS members are licensed to practice dentistry in the state of Colorado. Among the benefits provided to MDDS members are continuing education, public relations, legislative, peer review and patient relations programs, community service programs, interprofessional benefits, financial and legal services, a staff referral service, subscriptions to local, state and national dental publications, and a professional library, in addition to other services.

MDDS also administers the Rocky Mountain Dental Convention, the largest dental convention in the Rocky Mountain region. The Convention brings approximately 8,500 dental professionals to Denver each January at the Colorado Convention Center.

The current president of MDDS is Dr. Terry L. Brewick. The president-elect for 2008/2009 is Dr. Troy A. Fox.
